

Walk 4: Saxton and Caldecott Roads

1.8 miles

Enjoy the views of the Thames, see the Alms Houses and walk the long interesting residential roads.

As you walk along Saxton Road, note the traffic free areas in front

Caldicott Road

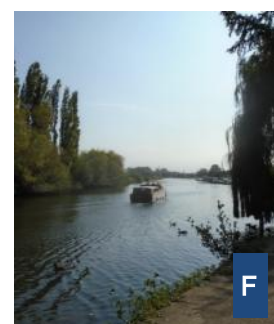

Line of horse chestnut trees

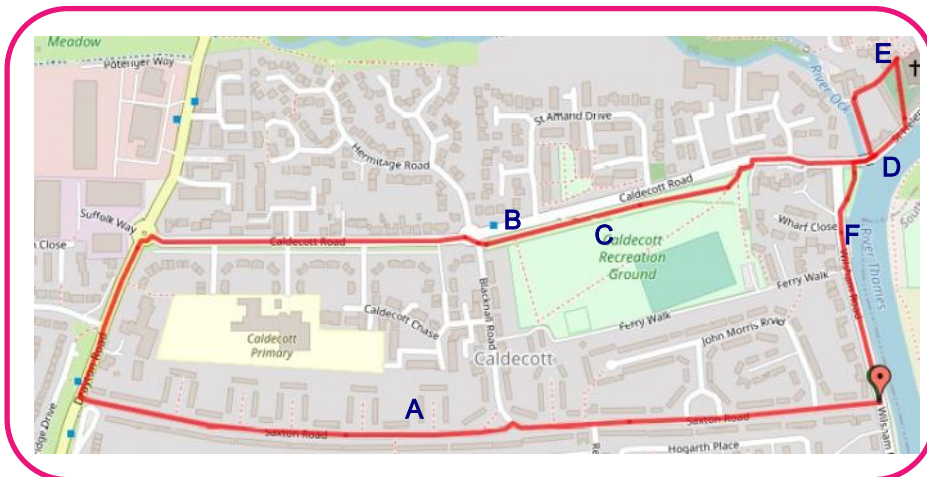

St Helen's Wharf

Twitty's Alms Houses

Thames from Wilsham Road

Route

Start and finish anywhere but here we start from the corner of Saxton and Wilsham Roads.

- Set off down Saxton Road with the Thames behind you.
- At end of Saxton Road, turn right at Drayton Road
- Turn left into Caldecott Road.
- When you reach Caldecott Recreation Ground, you can nip into the park and follow the line of horse chestnut trees.
- At end of park go back onto Caldecott Road and go to end and then straight over the little bridge (known as 'The Iron Bridge').
- Follow St Helen's wharf past the pub and turn left into path leading to Alms Houses.
- At Twitty's Alms Houses, turn left.
- At the River Ock, turn left back to wharf.
- Then turn right back over the bridge and left through the little park which takes you back on to Wilsham Road which you follow back to your start.

healthyabingdon@aol.com
www.healthyabingdon.org.uk